Silver Day, September 11, 1893

at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago.

The program that was arranged for the observance of Silver Day failed to attract visitors. Two platform meetings for the discussion of the silver question were announced to take place at Music Hall, but enthusiasm was dampened by the small attendance. Speeches were made by ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, of New Mexico, Governor David H. Waite, of Colorado, and other advocates of free silver.
