THE PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY

Where the Best Work in Chicago is Done.

White City Amusement Park, 63rd Street and South Parkway, Chicago, IL (1905)

Just to the south of the peristyle on the east side of the "Board Walk" is located the White City Photograph Gallery. As an attraction to visitors who cannot always command facilities for having their pictures taken it will supply all deficiencies.

Only first-class operators are employed and a high grade of work can be turned out with the ample facilities at hand. All kinds of pictures are taken, including tintypes or cards of any size or description.

In addition to the work of making pictures to order, the managers of this concession always have on hand an assortment of White City photographs and views which can be purchased at moderate prices.

Those who are interested in a high-class photograph gallery will find particular interest by visiting this establishment at White City.
